SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

Good Sport on Salt River—

All sorts of game was bagged by a party which went to Salt river from Globe. The hunters were, Ike Opie, Ed Gribben, A. Garkett, R. Garkett, Jack Brookshire, Dash Berryman, Matt Swartz, John Toy and Jack White. They, each, brought back their full quota of fish, rabbits, duck and quail, in addition to a fine coon, and there was a big coon feast at the Strangers' Home.

Judge Hechtman Honored—

Judge J. F. Hechtman, who went to Moline, Ill., from Albuquerque, where he attended the irrigation congress as a delegate from the Globe Chamber of Commerce, is being made much of in the Illinois city, where the natives are anxious to hear something of the west, and especially of Arizona. At a banquet given by the Moline club, Judge Hechtman was the guest of honor and when called upon for a speech, gave the assembly such an account of the actual conditions and future of Globe and the territory that his address was as good as a course in school to the Illinoisans.

Wednesday Club This Afternoon—

The Wednesday club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. Ed. Barrett, where an interesting program will be rendered.

Big Shipment of Hides—

Harry Markovitz, representing the Los Angeles firm of Kaufman, Davidson & Co., last night shipped two car loads of hides, which he had purchased from J. C. Gatti's slaughter house. This is, possibly, the largest shipment of hides ever made out of Globe in as short a time as has elapsed since the preceding shipment, but Globe is growing fast and Gatti's business is growing correspondingly.

Pickens Comes Back Incog—

J. A. Pickens, the world's champion driller, who has taken easy money in first prizes at Butte and Spokane, has been in town since Saturday night without being recognized by his Globe friends. The fact is that Pickens came back incog. "That's Pickens," said one man to another on the street yesterday afternoon. The other used the "short and ugly word." But it was Pickens, all right. It is the lack of that gracefully curling brown mustache that does it. Sure, Pickens is now as smooth in front as any blaze-faced cayuse. Shaved off the last little sign of that mustache. Beastly shame, of course, but the big miner says that it was so cold in the northwest that he was afraid the lambskins would freeze and break off with part of his lip. He just had to bow to stern necessity and put his nose between the barber's fingers.

Busy Times in Railroad Yards—

The new freighthouse of the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern will not be finished any too soon for the requirements of business. Five carloads of general merchandise, consigned to Globe merchants, were received and unloaded yesterday, and though all the teams available were busy hauling goods from the depot throughout the day, the freighthouse was crowded with freight when the doors closed at "knocking off" time yesterday evening. The out-bound business is equally large, the company being called upon regularly to furnish extra freight trains to haul goods down the valley, while through shipments are also increasing largely in volume.

Goat Ranchers Doing Well—

J. R. Bennett, a large goat rancher whose place is a few miles north of Globe, has just returned from Millersburg, Ohio, where he sold two carloads of Angoras, and is preparing to send more goats east. While in town yesterday, Mr. Bennett said that he expected to cut between seventeen and eighteen thousand pounds of mohair this season, clipping having just commenced. Another rancher, whose name could not be learned, sent out a carload of mohair over the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern last night, and shipments of this product will be going on steadily for some time. The price paid ranchers for mohair, just now, is only from 20 to 25 cents a pound, much less than the 40 cents paid some time ago, but, thanks to the demand created by the teddy bear, it is far above the prices ruling only recently and the ranchers have reason to be gratified.

Iris Singer Brings Bride—

The wedding of Miss Vera Mae Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Noble of Norwalk, to Paul E. Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Noble of Long Beach, was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock by the Rev. Wm. Knight at his residence, No. 1770 Court street, Los Angeles. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Griffin, and only their immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony. The bride's gown was a white wool directoire, with a picture hat to match, and her traveling gown was a blue broadcloth, with a tailor-made hat. Mrs. Griffin was attired in a white tailor-made gown. After a short wedding tour, the young couple will go to Globe, Ariz., where Mr. Noble, who has a fine baritone voice, has accepted a position at one of the theaters.—Los Angeles Times.

New Real Estate Firm—

Alex Simpson & Co., is the official title and designation of a new firm organized in Globe for the transaction of all that pertains to the real estate business. The members of the firm are Alex Simpson and J. M. McPherson, well known business men of this city.

Schulze Property Producing—

A. Lange, who is leasing on the Schulze property, has struck a good vein of red oxide, azurite and green carbonate ores running from 3 to 20 per cent in copper. That this is a true fissure, is the opinion of all mining men who have examined the property. Mr. Lange has about thirty tons of ore ready for shipment and will begin shipping as soon as teams can be procured. The Schulze brothers are doing considerable work on other claims and expect to begin shipping soon.

Circus Men Get Hearing—

Justice Hinson Thomas began yesterday taking the depositions of the eighty-odd circus laborers who were left here by the Norris & Rowe show last week. The circus management was represented by Attorney George Stoneman, while Attorney Alfred of the law firm of Witheer & Alfred appeared for the men. Two stenographers had been provided, taking the testimony separately for each side.

Ball Game Postponed—

Owing to the rain last Sunday, the barbers and bartenders have postponed their ball game to next Sunday, when, rain or shine, sleet or snow, the two teams of all star players will proceed to show stars to each other.

Mrs. Cloud Buys a Home—

Through the agency of the Home Investment company, yesterday J. H. Davis sold to Anne Cloud a house and lot on section 28 in East Globe. The consideration was $1,200.

Presbyterian Meeting Tonight—

The cottage meeting under the auspices of the Presbyterian church will be held tonight (Wednesday) with Mrs. E. C. Bright, three blocks east from Hill street, near and north of Maple street, at 7:30 sharp.

Dance Saturday night at Clark's pavilion, October 24th. J. E. O'Neill, manager.

Night School

Several have made inquiries concerning a night school and an attempt will be made to organize one provided the interest warrants. All who desire to do any work in such a school, no matter what subjects, are requested to meet at the Central school building on Friday evening next at 8 o'clock to talk things over.

SULTANS CONTINUE COST SALE.

Sultan Bros. wish to announce to the people of Globe that they have decided to continue their cost sale for the balance of the month. This sale has been a wonderful success and the crowds of people daily taking advantage of their low prices, have brought them to this decision.
